

I am opposed to BPL. Using Broadband data services over power lines will cause great harm and interference to the HF radio services of many types. This is generally a bad idea. I urge the FCC to not allow this plan to be implemented.